

Shop Drawing Process Product Data shop drawings is to ensure that we interpret the clients drawings accurately such that the manufactured products will meet the clients' requirements. AAM develops a Shop Drawing Package for all products manufactured in all of our facilities. The purpose of the

Quotations

with the terms of our offer and the client can be certain that we have allowed, in our estimate, all that they require. client drawings. We then submit these marked up drawings with our formal Quotation. In this way we are specific those drawings up with dimensions, comments, and, depending on product, super impose our products onto the At the estimate stage, we receive clients' drawings and highlight the areas we are quoting. We often times mark our online portal, GoProof. The standard lead time for shop drawings is about 7 business days. highlighted on the clients drawings in our original Quotation. We submit these shop drawings for approval through contains the plans, elevations and sections of the ordered product or system and reflects the areas of the project When we receive a purchase order we create a formal Shop Drawing Package on our title block. This package dimensions etc. This is revision 1. The standard lead time for revised shop drawings is about 3 business days correct. The client marks up drawings appropriately in the GoProof online portal. Upon receipt of this review, our engineering department will update the shop drawing to reflect any changes noted by the client including The client reviews our Shop Drawing Package for accuracy and to ensure field conditions and measurements are to reflect those changes. The revised shop drawing package will be attached to this Quotation. measurements or further requirements added to or omitted from the original quote, we will submit a new Quotation At this stage, if there is a material change to the value of the project from the original Quotation as a result of field the project will be released to manufacturing. Upon receipt of any necessary change orders and a signed approved shop drawing (free from any amendments

Ordere

Review

Variation & Changes

Shipment & Installation

marked with the elevation / location. A copy of the Shop Drawing Package is included with the each crate. The last use of our products. These standards must be followed to ensure a proper and warrantable installation . page of each Shop Drawing Package contains the required environmental standards for the receipt, installation and When the products are completed they are labeled to identify thier location on the shop drawing and the crate is

